RULES & GUIDELINES

I

PURPOSE OF THE FASHION REVUE

- A. Develop skills in sewing construction for different occasions.
- B. Acquire knowledge and skills in planning, presenting and participating in a fashion revue.
- C. Develop skills, knowledge and attitudes for lifelong use.
- D. Build self-confidence and poise.

II

AGE DIVISION – 4-H AGE

- A. Cloverbuds ages 5-8
- B. Intermediate 9 -12 years old
- C. Juniors 13-15 years old
- D. Seniors 16-18 years old

III

CATEGORIES

- A. Accessories – ponchos, vest, pocketbook, etc.
- B. Novelties – pillowcases, apron, pillows, etc.
- C. Clothing – suits, dresses, pants, suits, costumes, pajamas, etc.
- D. Other – knitted or crochet items, etc.

IV

GUIDELINES

- A. Any fabric or materials may be used.
- B. Each participant may only enter one item per category.
- C. Workmanship must be done entirely by an active 4-H member, not a parent or volunteer leader, etc. However, helpful information may be obtained from any source.
- D. Items entered in the Fashion Revue must have been made within the last year.
PRIZES & RECOGNITION

- A. Cloverbuds will be classified as non-competitive and will receive a green participation ribbon.
- B. First, second and third place winners will be recognized in each category.
- C. Each participant that does not receive an award will be presented a green participation ribbon.
- D. One entry will be awarded “Best In Show.”

FORMS

- A. Entry and Participant Information forms are available from the Carteret County Extension office or may be downloaded online at http://carteret.ces.ncsu.edu/index.php?page=youth4h

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

For additional information call the Extension office, 222-6359.