Plant Functions

Flower	A. Carries water and nutrients to the plant from the roots and provides support.
Stem	B. Provides energy for the plant.
Leaves	C. Helps attract pollinators, like bees and butterflies, to the plant.
Roots	D. Through a process called photosynthesis, this turns light energy into food.
Seeds	E. Absorbs nutrients and water from the soil.
Sun	F. This grows into a new plant.